Covid-19 Precautions—Blandford Parish Church As you will no doubt have heard there are plans for the lifting of some restrictions by the Government shortly. We will keep an careful eye on what this means for our services in the future. However, for this Sunday at the licensing service face coverings must be worn in the church building.

Bible Book Club: Bible Book Club continues for 2022 and the next meeting will be at Nelsons on Wednesday 26th January at 2 p m. We will be discussing Acts chapters 1 - 12. All are very welcome to join us, or possibly start up your own, maybe reading the same Book if you like?

Rugs Needed: Does anyone has any spare rugs they are able to donate/ lend to the church? They will be needed for children to sit on for future activities. If you do please can you bring them to Blandford Parish Church on a Sunday morning. Thank you.

Community Kitchen Market Stall: Thank you so much for your generosity in donating items for the stall. It is much appreciated and will provide a great source of support for the Community Kitchen projects over the coming year.

Building Work: The external scaffolding is beginning to go up and the contractors Sally Strachey Historical Conservation have moved into the church. They will be there Monday to Friday and then we will take it back for Saturday and Sunday. They will spend 4-5 weeks will arrive on Monday 10th January. They will spend 4-5 weeks putting up the external scaffolding and then 2 weeks putting up the internal scaffolding . We will have use of the whole church on the 23rd and 30th January. For our own safety please do not enter the church without checking with Darek first. Sara.
